Mrs. Orthwein Not Guilty

SLAYER OF ZIEGLER FREED BY JURY; WEEPS AT VERDICT

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
CHICAGO, June 24.—Cora Isabelle Orthwein, slayer of Harry Ziegler, was declared not guilty by a jury this evening, after an hour. Mrs. Orthwein wept with joy as the verdict was read.

The jury, find the defendant, Cora Isabelle Orthwein, not guilty of the indictment.

This does not mean she did not kill Ziegler, for she admits the slaying, but she claims she was not guilty of the murder.

The case has attracted wide attention and has been followed closely by people in Chicago and elsewhere. The testimony showed that Ziegler, an able and companionable business man when sober, became a drunkard when inebriated with liquor, and that he drank heavily and often. The fact that his widow and daughter left the city to avoid testifying led the public, and possibly the jury, to believe that his actions in his own home were not such as to endear him to his family.

His wife had become estranged from him and had been in California. She returned just before the tragedy, and it was said that love for her husband had changed her attitude toward him.

Mrs. Orthwein, whose maiden name was Landrum, and who came from Kentucky, was first married to John O'Connor, then to Harry Ziegler, who introduced her to St. Louis society. She was divorced from him in 1918.

She was charged with the murder of Ziegler on the night of June 23, 1920, when he was found dead in his room at the Hotel Hamilton. She was charged with the murder of Ziegler on the night of June 23, 1920, when he was found dead in his room at the Hotel Hamilton.

For several minutes a rough scene ensued as Mrs. Orthwein was being taken to the courtroom. She was being taken to the courtroom. She was being taken to the courtroom.

Prosecutor Keith asserted in his argument that Ziegler is dead. She lives. It is not fair.

Mrs. Orthwein was the twenty-eight-year-old widow of a man who was killed in a car accident in the past ten years. During that period only three women have been convicted.

"I Spilled the Beans, I Got What Was Coming to Me," Says Sailor.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Secretary of the Navy Denby today administered a public reprimand to Rear-Admiral William S. Sims for statements in his recent speech in London reflecting upon the activities of Sinn Fein sympathizers in America and upon the houses of Congress, legislature and other public bodies which have adopted resolutions attacking England and ex-

The reprimand was conveyed to Admiral Sims at his hotel in a letter from Secretary Denby disapproving two paragraphs of the correct text of the speech furnished by the admiral's press secretary.

The admiral's speech was a dramatic raising of his right fist above his head—"Long live the revolutionary proletariat."

For several minutes a rough scene ensued as Mrs. Orthwein was being taken to the courtroom. She was being taken to the courtroom. She was being taken to the courtroom.

TROOP TRAIN BOMBED.

Sinn Fein Kill Four and Wound Twenty; De Valera is Arrested.

BELFAST, June 24.—Four persons were killed and twenty injured when a train carrying troops homeward from Belfast, where they attended the ceremonies of the opening of Parliament Wednesday, was attacked with mines and bombs. The attack took place at a desolate spot one mile north of Abneyville. Most of the cars of the wrecked train were tipped over a steep embankment by the explosion. All of the telegraph and telephone lines north of Dundalk, near by, had been cut.

An official account says that a portion of the railway track was removed and a number of bombs were placed in the gap.

A regular passenger train passed over the spot where the explosion occurred.

Railway employees working near the scene prior to the arrival of the troop train were held up by an armed band and herded into a nearby cottage where they were detained until after the troop train had been blown up.

DE VALERA ARRESTED.

DUBLIN, June 24.—(By A. P. Night Wire.)—The Irish Republican leader was arrested Wednesday night near this city and later released. It was definitely established today. There had been earlier denials from the Sinn Fein authorities that he had been apprehended.

It appears certain that De Valera was arrested either in error or through over-zeal on the part of the officials concerned.

The arrest, it is understood, took place at Black Rock, County Dublin. The prisoner was detained for the night and his identity being learned, he was released yesterday afternoon.

As a matter of fact, it is declared here, there is no intention on the part of the authorities to arrest De Valera.

LATE NEWS.

GLENDAL WOMAN HURT.
EL PASO, June 24.—Five persons were hurt when an El Paso and Southwestern passenger train from Los Angeles and a Texas and Pacific passenger train from the East collided head-on in the yards here tonight. The injured included Mrs. Madge Maddox of Glendale, Cal., who suffered bruises about the body.

GRASSHOPPERS ARE PEST.
COLORADO SPRINGS, June 24.—An army of grasshoppers, estimated by County Farm Agent J. C. Hale to be fifteen miles wide and twenty miles long, is advancing on El Paso county, Colorado, from the south. Hale announced tonight. In their advance the grasshoppers are destroying virtually all vegetation in their path, he said.

NABBED AS POULTRY THIEF.
LEONARD COOPER, 28, aged 28, of 424 West Fifty-fifth street, employed as a salesman at the Pianos Exchange, 640 South Main street, since last January, was caught last night by Detective Sergeant Canto, Detective Gross and Lieut. Stalen leaving the establishment with a load of live stock and accessories valued at about $500, for which, they say, he had not paid. He was booked at the City Jail on the charge of grand larceny.

DIES ON "MIRACLE HILL."
Following the death of Jose Ramon, aged 60 years, who was taken to the hill opposite Lincoln Park yesterday for treatment by the so-called "Miracle Man," an investigation was started by the coroner's office. In case it is learned from witnesses, Deputy Coroner MacDonald stated, that the elderly man was treated by "Brother Isiah" just before he died, the investigation will be continued.

UNEARTH PLOT TO DYNAMITE FEDERAL BANK.

Two Men Arrested in San Francisco; Held for Conspiracy to Wreck Building.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Two men were arrested here early today charged with conspiracy to blow up the new Federal Reserve Bank building under construction here.

The men, who gave the names of Dan Chickering and Jack Knicker, were accused by the police of offering George K. Steele a sum of money to put dynamite in the boilers of the new building.

Steele is a guard at the local Southern Pacific Railroad yards, where the boilers are being unloaded. The police questioned the men closely in an effort to ascertain their motives.

The two men were arrested at Steele's residence, 4220 Twentieth street, while giving instructions to Steele, the police said, concerning the carrying out of the alleged plan. Steele previously had been charged with conspiracy to blow up the Federal Reserve Bank.

LATVIA AND RUSSIA IN STATE OF WAR.

OILDALE IS SWEEPED BY FIRE; HALF OF BUSINESS DISTRICT IN LITTLE TOWN IS WRECKED.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
BAKERSFIELD, June 24.—Fire, which started from a stove in the rear of the Fred Eaton drug store, today destroyed half the business district of the town of Oil Dale, in the Kern River oil fields, three miles north of Bakersfield, entailing a loss of $100,000.

An entire business block, containing seven stores, on the west side of the oil-fields highway, was razed by the flames.

Bada Newman, a woman who was cooking in the rear of the drug store where the fire started when she left the building to wait on a customer, became hysterical over the loss of valuable personal effects and attempted to leap into the flames. Her death was narrowly averted when bystanders pulled her bodily from the flaming door of the store.

MILLIONS LOST EVERY MONTH; GOVERNMENT TO DISPOSE OF VESSELS AS SOON AS POSSIBLE

NEW YORK, June 24.—Disposal or destruction of all wooden ships by October 1 and the sale to private owners of all other government-owned tonnage as soon as good business judgment dictates was promised here today by Albert D. Lasker, new chairman of the United States Shipping Board.

Mr. Lasker, meeting fourteen leading New York steamship men, pledged the board's co-operation with private operators everywhere in solving the problems confronting the American merchant marine.

Later Mr. Lasker declared that the situation confronting the board was the greatest commercial wreck in the history of shipping. The board is, and had been, losing for several months, he said, approximately $15,000,000 a month. This is bound to continue for months to come, he said.

Referring to his recent order cancelling Shipping Board advertising contracts, he said:

"That was but a small matter, for a millionaires, come actively speaking, in the Shipping Board situation is like shooting 20 cents a line calling on the shipping and business men of every port in the United States for assistance."

Claims against the board, he said, will reach prompt attention. President Harding, he added, will soon appoint an arbitration court of three prominent men before whom all pending claims, estimated at $300,000, will be brought for quick adjustment.

REPUDIATION OF REDS SUSTAINED BY A.F. OF L.

Action of Executive Committee Upheld Despite Efforts of Radicals to Gain Acknowledgment.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
DENVER, June 24.—The action of the executive council in repudiating and severing relations with the International Federation of Trades Unions was sustained tonight by an overwhelming vote of the American Federation of Labor.

Proposals made by the International Association of Machinists and the Firemen's and Oilers' Union that the executive council and President Gompers be immediately instructed to reaffirm the American labor movement with the European organizations were almost unanimously defeated.

Benjamin Schlesinger, president of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' union, declared there was "no good reason in the world for the American Federation not being affiliated with the International Federation of trades unions."

Declaring that affiliation with the international movement would be a betrayal of the American labor movement, Vice-President William Duncan of Quincy, Mass., bitterly repudiated Schlesinger's stand.

When he began to quote alleged remarks made by Schlesinger regarding the Russian revolution, the committee also condemned the international federation for "address-

can must confine his address to the international movement."

fact that it is necessary to rebuke

Denby letter of reprimand declared

at the direction of the President as in the case of the reprimand of 1911," the Secretary was asked."This is the Secretary of the Navy's case," replied the Secretary.
"Then the President had nothing to do with this reprimand?""No," replied Mr. Denby grimly.
"This case was handled by the Secretary of the Navy."After receiving the reprimand
Admiral Sims went to the White House by appointment to pay the President a call of courtesy. He was greeted cordially by Mr. Harding, but what was said at this meeting, which lasted only a few minutes,

the admiral was asked by the Sec-

ment to make on his reprimand, Ad-

"I was sorry," I said what beans. I am ashamed to pay the administration any embarrassment.

The fact that it is necessary to rebuttle me at least, is a shame."The admiral departed tonight for

John's Armament Utterances Pleasing to President.

Not Regarded as Adverse to United States Interests.

Canada Considers Naming of Envoy to Washington.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Prime Minister Lloyd George's reference to this country in his address at the opening of the British imperial conference in London "are not at all displeasing to America," according to a high official who has authority to speak for President Harding. The British Prime Minister had indicated that nothing would be done by the imperial conference that would be inimical to the interests of the United States and he had announced that the British government was ready to discuss with American statesmen any proposal for a restriction of armaments.

No detailed statement of the impression made by Mr. Lloyd George's remarks was obtainable in administration circles, but what was said at the White House was taken to mean that the President felt gratified over the spirit of cordiality shown toward this country by the head of the British government. Mr. Lloyd George's statements concerning disarmament, it was said, were not out of harmony with the sentiments of the United States.

INFORMAL FEELERS.

The Prime Minister's statement is understood to have been made with full cognizance of the attitude of the United States toward the general subject of disarmament. It was announced at the White House several weeks ago that informal feelers had been sent out with a view to ascertaining the opinions of other governments on world disarmament or partial disarmament, and it is known that Ambassador Harvey was authorized to express the views of this government on that subject when the matter came before the Allied Supreme Council.

When Sir Auckland Geddes, the British Ambassador, returned from his somewhat hurried visit to Washington, he is understood to have brought back with him the views of the British government toward partial disarmament, and the presumption is that these views were communicated to the State Department in the course of the many informal conversations which have taken place.

CANADIAN AMBASSADOR.

The administration would welcome the naming by Canada of an ambassador to Washington but feels that the initiative should be taken by Canada or Great Britain in the matter. It was learned in an authoritative quarter today that administration officials commented favorably upon statements attributed to Mr. Lloyd George and other British statesmen of high rank to the effect that such a diplomatic representative might be named by the Dominion government to the near future.

It was pointed out that while legislation would probably be necessary to create the position of a diplomatic agent to Canada and an appropriation would be needed to cover the salary of such an officer, the President probably would not authorize Congress to hold office until Congress could act.

CANADIAN APPROPRIATION.

An appropriation of $50,000 annually is understood to have been available for more than two years in Canada for such a post, but for some reason not clearly clear the matter has gone no further.

A multitude of problems has come up between Canada and the United States, which it is argued could properly have been handled directly instead of through the British Embassy in London.

ATHLETES TO FROLIC TODAY.

L.A.A.C. Trainer Takes His Men to Paddock Field.

Speeds Up Work for A.A.U. Track Championships.

Weaver Receives Entries of Illinois Athletic Club.

(BY PAUL LOWRY.)

Dean Cromwell, trainer of the Los Angeles Athletic Club track team, which is to uphold the prestige of Southern California's brown and muscle in the national A.A.U. track and field championships at Pasadena, July 2 and 3, will take a batch of his spike-diggers over to Paddock Field for an airing this afternoon.

After today Cromwell plans to work the boys almost exclusively at Paddock Field as the eastern and coast athletes will start drifting in Monday, and the field at the corner of Wilson and California streets will be pretty well cluttered up with hustlers from out-of-town districts.

Charles Paddock's leg is just about well enough to stand pressure, and he probably could run today without danger of further injury. The doctor, however, thinks Monday is soon enough for Charles to put on his running pants, and the world champion will abstain until that time.

Cromwell will have Varns Blankin, the classy Compton high flier, doing the dashes with "Spec" Schilder, the famous athletic family, will go through the whole grind of the all-around program. As he scored 6550 points for nine events early this week at Paddock Field he believes he can come close to his brother Fred's world's record today.

The afternoon mail brought the entry list of the Illinois Athletic Club to National President Bob Weaver yesterday. The I.A.C. will have twelve men in the senior championships, five in the junior and two in the all-around competition.

Most noted, perhaps, of the Illinois entries is Dan Ahern, holder of the world's record of 50 ft. 11 in. in the high jump and jump. Joe Ray, the mile is too well known to draw comment.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY IS ENACTED AT PHOENIX.

FORMER OAKLAND MAN KILLED WIFE, THEN PUTS BULLET THROUGH OWN HEART.

PHOENIX (Ariz.), June 24.—This afternoon William Kirschberg shot his wife through the heart and then fired a bullet through his own heart. The couple made their home in Oakland until a few weeks ago, when the wife returned to Phoenix, planning her two children in a convent school and herself residing with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Parrish, of 417 North Fourth avenue.

The husband followed from Oakland, arriving yesterday. He had made two visits on his wife, who continued in her determination not to live with him any longer. At 2:30 today he came again, apparently calm, and was admitted to the home by his wife. A few minutes later Mrs. Parrish heard two shots and found her daughter lying dead on the floor. In an adjoining room Kirschberg was breathing his last.

SINN FEIN AND SIMS ADMIRAL SIMS

War between England and America "is as certain, as inevitable, as was war by England against Germany; it is, at most, a question of a few years." This startling statement is uttered casually by the New York Irish World in the course of an editorial on Rear-Admiral William Sowden Sims' unflattering characterization of American Sinn Feiners in an after-luncheon speech in London. "Think of our fate when England strikes, with men like Sims, the Anglo-Saxon, with whom blood is thicker than water, in charge of our defenses." "Sims," continues this Irish-American weekly, "says that the Irish are asses. Well, Sims has already felt the asses' heels, and, ere long, those same heels will kick the stuffings out of the mangy cat known as the British lion." A more peaceful vision of the future is seen by the Admiral, who is quoted as saying: "The English-speaking peoples are coming together in the bonds of comradeship, and they are going to run this round globe." The Admiral does not lack enthusiastic and outspoken champions in the American press. Thus the Grand Rapids News says that "Americans have permitted themselves too long to be browbeaten by a few violent Irishmen, either citizens or residents without citizenship, every time any reference is made to the Irish question. It seems we may speak about any other people or any other question, but we must handle the Irish question with gloves, we must handle it only in a manner that pleases the few violent ones. Admiral Sims had the hardihood to hit these blatant browbeaters, the courage which few of our men in public life have. He said nothing to which the American citizen of Irish extraction, who is first of all an American, can object. And it is about time someone should hit the self-appointed directors of American opinion."

The leading article in THE LITERARY DIGEST, this week, June 25th, presents a careful and very interesting survey of public opinion in America upon the controversy raging over Admiral Sims' utterances in London.

DAILY TRADE TALK.

More About Senate Bill No. 21; Cotton and Cantaloupes; Night Banking Again.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

Another angle of the fight against Senate Bill No. 21, which is just now occupying the attention of lawyers
and trust company officials is submitted by Kenyon F. Lee, chairman of the committee of the Los Angeles Bar Association on the unlawful practice of law.

A referendum petition is now being circulated throughout the State which will probably be signed by a sufficient number of voters to restrain the operation of the act
which seeks to prevent the giving of legal advice by persons other than regularly licensed attorneys. The bill prevents trust companies from drawing wills and the issue is chiefly between the trust companies on one side and the lawyers on the other.

Mr. Lee as spokesman for the Bar Association informs Trade Talk that the bar of California is not in favor of the bill. He says that the bill is not in the public interest, and that trust companies should be permitted to draw wills because trust
officers are employed to draw wills
and owe their allegiance and duty
to their employers and not to the public.

"They do not represent the makers of the will," continued Mr.
Lee, "and the makers of the will desiring to make wills do not receive independent and impartial advice from the trust officers, as is demonstrated by the clauses inserted
in the wills drawn by these trust
officers."

The ethics of the situation is attacked by Mr. Lee when he declares that "a trust company is not any more interested in the success of the law than is a drug store proprietor interested in the science of medicine. We cannot too strongly condemn the unwarranted invasion
of the sanctity of the home, the sacred relation of husband and wife and parent and child, to make a paw of death for selfish and financial gain by trust companies in soliciting the execution of wills and unethically appointing themselves as executors and trustees thereof."

The battle promises to be closely waged and there are some indications of feeling on either side. Having discussed the matter from the standpoint of the trust companies a portion of Mr. Lee's argument is offered so that the public may have a clearer idea of what it is all about.

COTTON SITUATION.

One of the worst spots in our industrial reconstruction is the cotton position, and yet there are increasing signs of forthright action toward improvement even here. Records show that consumption is slowly increasing in this country and through Continental Europe.

There has been an approximate
reduction of 20 per cent in acreage and 40 per cent in production. The boll weevil is active in many sections, and it is obvious that under these conditions the cotton producers will have to be only a little below normal for the crop to be reduced to such a state that the large crop would be the result. The cotton producers are working hard to protect the world against the possibility of lack of supply during the year 1922-23. A recent summary says:

"American cotton is selling at practically half the cost of production. It seems well, therefore, to warn the consuming world, that these facts are fundamental and cannot easily be neutralized by inflation of any speculative interest, nor by the labor troubles of any one country."

BANK CLOSING TIME.

Like the King of France who marched up the hill and then marched down again, the night
blooming banks, or some of them,
after a period of illuminated activity, will return to the status quo of Dormant. The clearinghouse association, with a resolution adopted
yesterday by the Clearinghouse Association, which also extended the time of definitive regulation from July 1 to September 15.

As a result of the latest action
of the association the banks which were prior to the suggestion that all the night banks close, a suggestion which had the effect of opening
a lot of institutions which had heretofore confined their financial activities to daylight hours.

It is the purpose of the clearinghouse committee to continue its duties and an effort will be made to reach a compromise agreement
which will either result in making Los Angeles a closed town so far as night banks are concerned, or bring them together in an amiable understanding.

In any event the cruel war seems to be over for the present. The banks that entered to the night
trading prior to September 15, or time prior thereto as a new ruling is made. The others, according to the interpretation given the resolution by bankers last evening, will put up their shutters and release the graveyard silence.

CANTALOUPE.

Cantaloupes are moving from the Imperial Valley in large volumes and the present estimate is for a commercial production of 11,000 cars.
Plenty of cars are so far available;
the supply of ice is said to be abundant; transportation officials
state there will be no shortage of motive power, and even the usual
labor controversy seems to have been disposed of for the season.

Prices have declined since the season opened, but this is partly offset in freight rate reductions.
On shipments to far eastern points
the reduction amounts to from 25
cents to 35 cents per 100 pounds.
The demand is good, the fruit excellent
and the indications are for a successful and profitable deal.

The consumer is being safeguarded by the State Horticultural Commissioner who insists that all melons shall have practically reached the mature stage before being picked. Every effort is being made to avoid picking green melons, and thousands of pounds were rejected
during the early part of June by inspectors who returned them to be repacked or thrown away.

The grower is given opportunity to repack his melons and return the mature stock to the distributor un-shaded, but if the grower attempts to return the melons without having repacked them he will be arrested and fined. Because of this rigid enforcement of the State law it is felt that the pack of cantaloupes averages

OLD IN MEXICO.

Mexican estimates place the value
of the petroleum industry in Mexico at $400,000,000 pesos, or $100,000,000. This does not include approximately $50,000,000 which has been spent in the construction of pipelines. One thousand wells are valued at $100,000,000. Properties
upon which the wells are located
are estimated to be worth $100,000,000.
Transportation facilities, including pipe lines, railroads and rolling stock used in the oil industry, are valued at $50,000,000. Refineries, machinery and buildings are valued at $100,000,000. The value of the whole, while miscellaneous property, of which the greater part is under control, are valued at $50,000,000.

FOOD IN STORAGE.

The cold storage report for the week ended June 22, showing the volume of commodities held in Los Angeles warehouses, indicates a marked increase in eggs and cheese,
the latter attaining its peak at 592, 711 pounds. Every item has substantially increased. The figures:

Commodity	Week ending June 22, 1921	Week ending June 15, 1921
Eggs (cases)	592,711	540,000
Cheese (pounds)	592,711	540,000

GAS BONDS POPULAR.

Bond & Goodwin & Tucker, syndicate managers of the new $1,500,
000 bond issue of the Los Angeles
Gas and Electric Corporation, report
that this issue is meeting a steady and satisfactory demand. The bonds
are being rapidly absorbed by investors.
The demand in San Francisco for the Los Angeles corporation's new issue is most satisfactory, which results in the sound security and the high credit rating of the bonds. The issue is being sold at a premium of 10 cents, and the syndicate is refunding mortgages 7 per cent bonds at 97 1/2 cents.

This issue, series B, is issued under the new mortgage law, and the $1,500,000, series A, bonds, which were brought out during March of this year, and which were practically sold out at the end of the second day's offering.

CRUDE PRODUCTION.

The American Petroleum Institute
estimates that the daily average crude-oil production in the United States for the week ending June 11 was 1,244,120 barrels,
as compared with 1,217,136 barrels
of the preceding week. California headed the list of oil-producing States with a total of 317,000 barrels as compared with 318,000 barrels for the preceding week.

ing to the report of the company it expended $1,125,000 of the proceeds of the sale of stock from Dec. 1, 1920, to April 30, 1921.

Building Program is Resumed in Cleveland; Business Outlook.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

CLEVELAND (O.) June 24.—Resumption of building after a seven
week lay-off of the building trades has given employment to 20,000 or 30,000 men in the last two days.

Workmen the Federal reserve bank building started today, and as bank officials had announced, it would not be begun until all details of the building strike had been settled, this is taken to indicate that all the troublesome angles have been smoothed out.

One large producer of iron ore
has cut the price $1 a ton, which has caused the price of the ore to fall. A statement today by the American Iron and Steel Institute indicates that price reductions July
will be confined to specialties in the line.

KANSAS CITY, June 24.—On the whole, the business outlook throughout the Twelfth District is improved, although mixed development has marked the situation in a few days. Improved crop conditions, with advancing wheat
and corn, has caused a decline in the price of grain. Recession in prices for livestock and oil have offset this
to some extent.

Extradition Papers Issued for W. R. L. Johnson.

Prisoner's Attorney Serves
Habeas Corpus Writ.

Accused Man Denies Guilt
and Blames Others.

Extradition papers for the return of Kentucky of W. R. L. Johnson, 35 years of age, arrested here early yesterday on a charge of obtaining nearly $300,000 through the asserted manipulation of the affairs of a corporation at Taylorville, Ky., were issued at the office of Gov. Stephens yesterday afternoon, according to word from Sacramento.

In less than half an hour after the message had been received here, Attorney Richard Kittredge served writ of habeas corpus on Chief of Police Fontenay signed by Superior Judge Shenk and returnable Monday morning before Judge Reeve in which Mr. Johnson's bail had in which Mr. Johnson's bail was fixed at $1000. Johnson furnished bail and was released.

According to the Sacramento dispatch, J. P. Dant, J. P. Dant, Jr., W. H. Wilson, W. L. Clark, Richard Wheatly and W. Von Stallard were indicted with Mr. Johnson, the complaint charging that stock salesmen of the corporation had misrepresented the stock to purchasers.

Mr. Johnson was taken into custody by local detectives and two Kentucky officers in his home on South Kingsley Drive in the presence of his wife and family. The officers from Kentucky held a fugitive warrant for Mr. Johnson.

In a statement made after he was locked in the City Jail, Mr. Johnson declares he is guilty of no crime and had been arrested as the result of the failure of a Kentucky corporation which he organized. The whole trouble and the failure were brought about, according to Mr. Johnson, by internal strife in the corporation and by persons making an effort to control his business.

The prisoner stated that he developed the first patent for "visible gasoline dispensing" and organized a company which soon grew to be one of the largest in Kentucky. Later, subsidiary corporations were organized and then, according to Mr. Johnson, friction developed and much litigation followed. As a result the business was declared to have been ruined.

"If there were any irregularities," Mr. Johnson states in his statement, "responsibility for them will be fixed on some one else."

RECEIVED DISCUSSION.
Mr. Johnson refused to discuss his move in employing attorneys and obtaining a writ of habeas corpus.

According to Sheriff John B. Thomas of Spencer county, Kentucky, and Thad Cheatham, county judge of Spencer county, who came to this city several weeks ago to locate Mr. Johnson, the prisoner will be started on his trip East next Monday.

The police say they have learned that Mr. Johnson, who is said to be very wealthy, came to Los Angeles with his family almost fifteen months ago. At that time he stated he was here for his health. The officers yesterday declared that the wanted man has been using several aliases since he came to Los Angeles.

UGH! BIG CHIEF WINS.

Citation Against Indian Plaintiff in Divorce Tangle Dismissed.

Chief Standing-Bear, who is suing Mary Standing-Bear for divorce and has had several hearings in court, appeared before Presiding Judge Shenk on a citation yesterday. It was charged that he had caused his property in South Dakota to be incumbered.

The chief asserted that the property was unknown to him and that the title to it was clear, so Judge Shenk dismissed the citation.

A deed to this land, comprising 160 acres, has been executed by Chief Standing-Bear to his wife. An affidavit was on file in court stating that Mrs. Standing-Bear is ill in an eastern hospital.

Chief Standing-Bear charges in his divorce suit that his wife deserted him; also, that she inflicted cruelty upon him by becoming intoxicated. While they were members of the "Missionary Play" company, he says she was intoxicated on a number of occasions and also drank when they were on the road with a show. He has been running a concession at the beach and also taking part in motion pictures.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY FOR AMATEURS

HOW TO RECEIVE.
In previous articles the writer explained the aerial and its construction, which acts as the source of picking up the messages; the coherer, an early type of detector which receives the messages coming through the aerial, and which acts as the source of the wireless waves; the sounder, or bell, which transmits the messages, or signals, received and makes it possible for the operator to hear the signal.

Coming in. Before describing the several other modern types of detectors and how to build them it would be well for the amateur to learn something about the manner in which wireless messages are received and read by the operator with the use of the telephone receivers.

All wireless messages come in the form of an electric wave and are heard in a hissing or buzzing sound similar to an ordinary electric buzzer.

A semiwireless set is used in connection with a dry battery. The instrument consists of an electric battery, a buzzer, a key and a telephone receiver. When the key is pressed down making a complete circuit the buzzer starts buzzing and the sound is heard through the receiver in a very low tone. By making short and long depressions with the key—the buzzer will produce the sound of the same duration.

To send a message by means of the short and long sounds a code was adopted so that a short and long sound would represent letter A, etc., etc. The wireless operators use the Continental code because of its simplicity.

Therefore, to receive wireless messages it is necessary for the person to learn the code so that when the sound is heard each alphabet is copied or taken down and the necessary words formed to make the message. For instance, in sending out the word cat, a long-short-long-short sound which is letter C—short-long sound which is letter A—long sound which is letter T—will be transmitted and the same sound will be heard by the operator through the detector by means of the receivers.

To make it easy to memorize the code as used the following "poem" will be found of great value to the Morse operator:

Poetic Telegraphy.
A dot and a dash is letter A.
A dash and three dots is B, they say.
Two dots, a space, and then a dot is letter C, if not, forgot.

A dash and two dots is letter D.
A simple dot and such is E.
Two dashes and a dot and G is left.

For letter H the dots are four.
Two simple dots and I is over.
Dash, dot, dash, dot for letter J.
Dash, dot, dash makes letter K.

One long dash for letter L.
Two little dashes and M is well;
Now make a dash and a dot, and then.

The wire has spoken the letter N.
A dot, a space and a dot for O.
Five dots will do for P, I know;
Two dots, a dash and a dot for Q.
For R, a dot, a space and two dots will do.

Three dots is S, one can easily see.
And a simple dash for letter T.
Two dots and a dash make letter U.
Three dots and a dash, and V is through.

Now dot and dash, and dash again.
You bring poor W into the game;
I know these dots and dashes do.

But it takes a dot, a dash and two dots for an X.
Now dear Alphabet, 'tis soon good-by.
Two dots, a space and two dots for Y.
And here's my best regards to Z.
Three dots, a space and a dot for Z.

ALL-YEAR CLUB SET FOR DRIVE.

Plans Completed to Raise
Three Hundred Thousand.

Success Assured in Campaign
Starting on Monday.

Cool Summers of Southland
Surprise Tourists.

Final details for the drive next week of the All-Year Club of Southern California to raise funds for a campaign to advertise Southern California as a summer resort were completed yesterday at a meeting of the campaign director, Harry M. Haldeman, and the executive committee of the club with representatives of most of the trade groups and organizations whose support is enlisted in the drive. It is proposed to raise $200,000 a year for three years.

Some additional minor details are to be attended to at a session today at which the captains of all the teams have been asked to be present, but it is the opinion of Mr. Haldeman and of those associated with him that the preliminaries have all been so well worked out that the success of the drive which opens on Monday is virtually assured.

Mr. Haldeman and the executive committee of the All-Year Club are counting not only on a spirit of civic pride that will refuse to let Los Angeles be outdone by San Diego and San Francisco, but also on the thoughtful appreciation of every member of the community that the plans of the All-Year Club mean permanent benefit and therefore should be assured of support by all.

VISION COMING TRUE.
The expressions of those at the meeting yesterday, representing all classes of business in this section, were accepted as reflecting the general community feeling. There was, for example, the brief statement of Charles Walton of the Southern California Edison Company, to the effect that he had been visioning for twenty-five years such an advertising campaign as the All-Year Club is planning.

"I have never been able to understand," said Mr. Walton, "why we let the people back East know only part of the story about Southern California. We have for years told them about our delightful weather climate with the result that thousands of visitors come to us each year during the winter months and from them we have built up our permanent population. But all the time we have been neglecting the finest part of our year, the summer, and I, for one, am so thoroughly in accord with this program of telling the facts of our all-year climate that I am prepared to work to the limit to make it successful."

Mr. Walton has accepted the captaincy of the team which will solicit the financial support of the electrical trade and of the public utility corporations. A number of well-known utility corporations and their executives are associated with him on the team.

MULLEN TO AID.
Another important addition to the line-up for next week's drive showed himself yesterday in Andrew Mullen, who has taken the leadership of the team that will take up the drive in the men's clothing and men's furnishing fields.

The men's clothing and men's furnishing fields. Another addition to the rank of the campaigners is John H. Dixon, of the Pign Whistle, also recruited yesterday and designated as team captain were K. L. Carver and E. A. Geisler, the former to campaign in the dairy and creamery and the cream manufacturer's field, and the latter as captain of the music trade team.

The real estate men brought a full crew to the meeting under the leadership of W. L. Hollingsworth were W. W. Mines, F. T. Newport, W. A. Heitman, O. A. Vickrey, H. F. Wood, B. Hopper, E. B. Giffen, T. R. Johnson, C. G. Andrews, Fred Latimer, D. W. Rose, L. J. Durston, and Rosa Fenner. This group, fired by the enthusiasm that was displayed at the morning session, held another meeting yesterday afternoon to complete the details of the work in their own field. A meeting of his team was also held in the afternoon by Capt. L. S. Rounsaville, who, with his associates, will take up the drive among the groups comprised of the Auto Association, the automobile accessory dealers, the Motor Transit Company, auto stages and sightseeing.

TOURISTS SURPRISED.
The need for a program such as the All-Year Club has undertaken was reflected yesterday in the brief daily in this city of the Brooklyn Daily Eagle's tour party. While its members were enquiring overland, H. V. Kaltenborn, assistant managing editor of the Eagle and director of the party, paused long enough in his duties to comment on the pleasurable surprise of the tourists in finding cool weather here.

Mr. Kaltenborn said that they had been experiencing severe weather and had looked forward to a continuance of it here. Not until they had actually found out for themselves the pleasantness of the Southland's summer climate, did they understand how great was the false impression about our climatic conditions in the East, said Mr. Kaltenborn.

In this connection, preliminary steps were taken with Mr. Kaltenborn for a visit here next year of a personally conducted Brooklyn Eagle tour. An discussion of C. G. Milham, executive secretary of the All-Year Club, the plan is to bring a party of 125 persons here to make Los Angeles its headquarters for about three weeks and with this city as a base, to see all the scenic attractions of the Southland.

RADIO WILL AID
FOREST PATROL.

Flares to Begin Guarding
Forests Against Fire
Early in July.

The air patrol of the forest
reserves of Southern California
will begin the first week

Allen stated yesterday. Wireless stations are now being installed in Los Angeles, at the Federal Building; in Santa Barbara and at Bear Valley,

so that the air patrol will be able to flash fire warnings direct from their machines.

This patrol service, which is supplied by the Army, with headquarters at March Field,

Riverside, has been successfully tried out for the last two years, but the wireless communication this year is to be an innovation which it is said

will greatly aid to the efficiency of the patrol.

State Market Director Britt, yesterday made public a report on the cost of production and distribution of milk prepared for the Los Angeles

under his direction for the State Market Commission. He reported that from the facts gathered

in this investigation, "milk can be produced and distributed for a great deal less than is now being charged

to the consumers of the city of Los Angeles."

The report, in part, follows:
"The dairy cow is treated as a machine, and concentrates behind brought to the cow, and by resulting in the production of milk

of this very fact, the last year
producing sustenance sufficient to nourish the cow and produce milk,
necessitates long rail or truck transportation from fertile portions of the State, to stimulate the animal and produce milk. The above is cited merely for the purpose of developing a well-known fact that it does cost more to produce milk for

Los Angeles, owing to this high land value condition, than it does in other portions of the State.

SMALL PRODUCER HIT.
"We have ascertained that at the height of the productive season, in the neighborhood of 75,246 gallons of milk arrive daily in Los Angeles,
and of this amount, 61,327 gallons

are being distributed and presumably consumed; the balance, 13,919
gallons, are what is known as "surplus" which, very unfortunately for the individuals producing it, is great many of them being small, independent dairymen—much lower price is paid for, than that which is allowed on the contract price.

"An agreement between the distributors of Los Angeles and the Southern California Milk Producers' Association, practically puts the small producer in a position where he is unable to receive a fair return
for the milk produced, and compels this individual to seek other methods of his own for distribution.

"On this surplus milk, the producer is allowed an average of 51 cents per pound of butter fat, or $2.04, instead of $4 for 4 per cent, which is not a fair return on the investment
and labor placed into the production of milk by the producer.

HIGHEST QUALITY.
"The Southern California Milk
Producers' Association, representing as it does 125 individual dairymen, delivers to the distributors of the city of Los Angeles, over 15 per cent of the milk distributed in this city.

"It is very fitting and proper to state that the quality of the milk supply of Los Angeles is equal to the best of any city in the United States. This high quality of standard is being maintained by reason of
a strict enforcement of the milk
ordinances, both State and city, and it is not our purpose to do or say anything that will interfere with a continuation of this splendid quality."

The report then takes in detail
the financial statement of one of the leading firms and declares that large sums have been set aside for depreciation, but the expert accountant and other investigators are positive there has been no depreciation,
because much money has been spent in the maintenance and upkeep of the buildings and equipment.

"However," the statement of Mr.
Britt continues, "even though the depreciation charges were eliminated, which we question very much,
the startling fact remains that this money so set aside, is not now available for construction of new buildings or for any other purpose, and it has either been passed on to the
so-called investment or been apportioned off in the huge profits
that we have been able to discern
by a careful and unbiased analysis
of the statement of this particular firm."

LARGE "WAGES."
Another showing in regard to this particular firm is contained in the assertion that one of the individuals who controls 70 per cent of the stock of the original investment of $50,000 receives $1000 monthly as "wages" for services that could be performed by the managerial head of the institution. By means of these wages, this controlling stockholder is enabled "to apportion out $12,000 a year to himself, in addition to a profit of $24,775.23, making his total yearly income $37,775.
$12,000 on an investment in stock purchased on a 70 per cent control
of the institution, of only $50,000.

The bottle situation in Los Angeles is given considerable attention,
and calls forth the following:
"An investigation into the bottle
situation as it affects the retail milk
distributors of many of the large cities of the United States, has convinced me that the milk distributors
of Los Angeles make little or no effort to reduce this tremendous item of expense, which they pay readily and easily pass on to the consumer, thereby greatly increasing the cost of distribution.

"WASTON WASTE."
"The Los Angeles Creamery
claims that last year it spent $42,000
for bottle replacement. The Burr Creamery claims it spent $40,000 in a similar way; while the Sanitary Gold Seal Dairy Company alleges that its replacement in bottles cost $17,000 last year. This is a tremendous item of expense unnecessarily
incurred in, and we approximate
that $200,000 was wilfully and wantonly
wasted in the careless, inefficient and almost criminal method
of handling bottles in the city of Los Angeles last year."

The summary of the report is:
"Many hundreds of thousands of dollars annually is being added onto the cost of distribution of milk by the numerous distributors
of Los Angeles, through 'depreciation,'
'and interest on investment,'
in addition to legitimate profits, as well as inefficient methods of handling the bottle situation and high salaries to stockholders holding control, who, in turn, do not perform
any service other than to extort
huge sums under the title of 'wages.'
The particular items mentioned above have been found to be safe
harbors of refuge for swollen profits,
and are not legitimate, being more
of a burden on the milk-consuming
public than the traffic should bear."

ON BUYING TOUR.
Buyers and the merchandise
manager, Herbert Wilson, of the Ville de Paris, left yesterday for New York and other Eastern markets to purchase special merchandise for the summer trade.

STOLE GIRL
IN NIGHTIE
IS CHARGE.

Mexican Lochinvar Passed
Bad Checks in Purchasing
Trousseau, Police Assert.

Manuel Cordova and Manuela
Martinez, both of Los Nietos, and the latter only 14 years of age, were brought to this city last night by

Constable Robert Way of Whittier.
Cordova was lodged in the County Jail charged with abduction, and Manuela being placed in the Juvenile Home.

According to the parents of the girl, Cordova took her from her home on Tuesday night and carried her with him to Santa Ana, a night-
gown being the extent of her wardrobe.

They reached Santa Ana at an early hour and when the stores opened, her companion went out and bought some clothing for the girl.
Meanwhile the parents had made a complaint against Cordova and a warrant had been issued by Judge Taylor at Whittier for his arrest on a charge of abduction. The result was that when Cordova was taken to the County Jail, he was charged with a marriage license at Santa Ana, he was arrested.

Cordova is also said to have
cashied forged checks to a total of $15 when he was purchasing clothes
for his nightgown bride-to-be.
Therefore another charge will be made against him in Santa Ana, it is stated.

Road Work Here

F. E. Bonner, assistant chief en-

here from Washington yesterday
and left on an inspection tour of the road development work in the Arroyo Seco, San Gabriel and San Dimas canyons.

It is estimated that it will take
two years to complete the San Gabriel Road and that when completed it will open up 1000 additional camp sites which will become available by auto. Already 450 permits have been issued for camp sites
in the Angeles Forest Reserve and the bureau is finding difficulty in meeting the demand. The permit costs $15 per year and requires a permanent improvement. A fifteen-year lease on available sites can be arranged at a rate of $15 a year.

Mayor Signs but Regrets Cutting
of Requirements.

The final chapter in the long contest over the adoption of the new paving specifications by the City Council was written yesterday when Mayor Snyder signed the ordinance,
at the same time sending to the Council a message expressing his regret that the body had stricken from
the regulations the changes in the sand and gravel requirements suggested by City Engineer Griffin and insisted by the Mayor. The latter also took occasion to again express his opposition to the use of patented paving for city streets. The Councilmen had taken out of the new specifications "Willite," a patented pavement, but refused to remove the requirements for "Warrentite," which Mayor Snyder has particularly opposed.

Councilman Farmer apologized to his fellow Councilmen for remarks
he made during the heat of the recent discussion over the new specifications when he stated that votes on the matter had been "bought and paid for."

Marjory came home from a neighbor's house munching a chocolate.
"Now, Marjory," said her mother,
"how many times have I told you not to ask Mrs. Brown for chocolates?"

"I didn't ask her," returned the child calmly. "I don't have to. I know where she keeps them."

PASADENA AFTER BIG GATHERINGS.
Invitations Part of Program for Jubilee Year.
City Has Contributed Much for Relief Work.
Famous Goat Case Has Again Been Postponed.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.
PASADENA, June 24.—Invitations to the City Managers' Association of the United States and the California Association of Municipalities to hold their annual convention in Pasadena in 1934, which will be Pasadena's golden jubilee year, were issued today by C. W. Kolner, City Manager of Pasadena. The municipal board of directors and the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce will supplement Mr. Kolner's invitation.
Pasadena is planning to entertain as many conventions and gatherings as possible in 1934. An invitation already has been extended to the International Association of Kiwanis Clubs.
YOUNG THIEVES CAUGHT.
Quantities of auto robes, wrenches, tools of various kinds and sundry articles left by motorists in their cars were recovered today when the police arrested four boys, 15 and 16 years old, and exacted from them confessions that they had been systematically looting automobiles parked along Pasadena streets. Police Chief Charles H. Kelley withheld the names of the four boys, as their cases will be heard by Juvenile Court.
CLEANLY MAN IS FINED.
Although riding horses and pack ponies may slush through the waters of the Arroyo Seco and still be within the law, and automobile wheels may eddy up the stream bed, human beings must not wash their hands, faces or bodies in the Arroyo. Wherefore H. J. Bruce of Los Angeles paid a fine of $5 to Judge Raymond G. Thompson in Justice Court for infraction of this regulation. He was arrested for the violation on complaint sworn to by Forest Ranger J. C. Cox.

through which the relief money was transmitted.
GOAT CASE DEFERRED.
The hearing of Thomas Crew, goat-fancier arrested yesterday in a case involving the value of the ordinance which prohibits goat-keeping in Pasadena, will be held next Wednesday in Municipal Court. The hearing was postponed today because J. G. Rosier, attorney for the goat-fancier's organization, objected to be in court in Los Angeles upon other matters.
The city of Pasadena is considering the purchase of a steam shovel, to be a permanent piece of equipment for the street department. City Manager C. W. Kolner has been visiting Long Beach, inspecting that municipality's shovel.

UNUSUALLY BUILDING IS BURNED BY BOYS.
PROBATION GRANTED, BUT JUDGE WON'T LET THEM BE TOGETHER.
LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.
SANTA ANA, June 24.—Vlad Wheeler, 30, Los Angeles, and John Walton, 19, Santa Ana, were ordered not to speak to each other again by Superior Judge Z. B. West in granting them probation after their plea of guilty on a charge of arson.
"The devil is a better friend to each of you than the company of the other," said the judge. "You seem to have an evil influence on each other when you get together." The boys were arrested last Sunday evening after setting fire to a barn belonging to Mrs. Marielene Lobo, 326 West Walnut street, Santa Ana. They said they had conspired to burn the barn, but the judge said they had heard neighbors remark that the barn was a public nuisance and they had decided to do a public duty by burning it. The boys were already on probation for the theft of an auto.
VALLEY CONDITIONS IMPROVE.
LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.
REDLANDS, June 24.—J. J. Buss, well-known merchant here in the Imperial Valley, has returned from a business trip to El Centro. Business and agricultural conditions there are much improved and there is great relief among the farmers since the food menace has been passed safely, he says.
Mr. Buss was told that a survey has been made and that less than 25 per cent of the tillable land in the valley is now in crops. He found that the cantaloupe crop, which has just been harvested, was a large one and that the quality was above the average.

PUBLICITY KEY STATE'S GROWTH.
Weaver Praises Editors for Part in Development.
Banquet at Venice Attended by Many of Note.
Other Interesting Features for Rest of Program.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.
VENICE, June 24.—Sylvester L. Weaver, president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, talked to the Southern California Editorial Association and many Venetians at the banquet at the Strand Cafeteria this evening. President C. H. Bauman of the Venice Chamber of Commerce, made an address of welcome, to which John E. King, president of the association and editor of the Herald-Examiner, responded. Mr. Bauman presented a complimentary letter from the Ontario Report as the toastmaster.
The program of toasts included a response for the "City of Venice" by Mayor Edward A. Gerety; for "The Venice Press" by Miss Dorothy C. Warren; "The Hell Box" by George F. Orsini of the Redondo Press; "The Editor's Responsibility" by George P. Rinehart, Covina Citizen; "The Milk Diet" by Edward A. Dickson, managing editor, Los Angeles Evening Express; "Forty Years of Newspaper Experience" by Mal H. W. Patton of the Los Angeles Examiner.
Mr. Weaver said in part: "From a study of the influences which have made Southern California the wonderful place that it is, it seems to me that there are two great factors which have changed it from a desert to a busy, happy section where agriculture, industry and commerce flourish."
"PUBLICITY AND—"
"In the early days of California, these influences were absent and so the country was undeveloped. Yet we had the same conditions, the same valleys, plains and mountains, the same beautiful beaches, but we had no publicity. I have in mind both begin with a 'P'—publicity and power. Without publicity the tremendous advantages of our section would have never been brought home to the thousands who have made their new homes in the West and without power there would have been no means of livelihood. To the men of the press is due in a great measure the present populous condition of Southern California and looking to the future, a continued growth and prosperity depends on a still further use of the printed page."
FAIR AHEAD.
"Already California is far ahead of other States in the consumption of power, particularly in electricity. Careful research has shown that the citizens of the West now use over six times as much electricity as those of the East. Apparently the use of electricity is the yard stick by which we measure our progress, and from the development of our latent water power into hydroelectricity it depends the future of the Coast and particularly of Southern California."
VAST FUTURE.
"This great State can take care of 10,000,000 people. Again, by research it is shown that, in accordance with the present rate of growth, our population by 1935 will have reached 11,500,000, and to take care of so large an influx of people, we are inviting to our State, the program as outlined for the development of hydroelectricity is being pressed forward by every citizen, and encouraged morally and financially."
ON TROLLEY RIDE.
Tomorrow the editors will enjoy a trolley ride as guests of the Pacific Electric Company and will visit the studios at Culver City. Sunday morning, Ray Shanon, editor of the Union Church, will talk on the "Wonder Working Rod," telling what the press can do for the world. In the evening Judge H. O. Palmer of the Hollywood Citizen and George H. Bristow, editor of the Morning Citizen will talk. Monday morning Vice-President Ballard of the Southern California Editorial Association will speak to the editors on the Colorado River project. They will meet at the California Theater and at that time will elect officers for the ensuing year.

UNABLE TO GET VERISCO JURORS.
Two Venires Exhausted While None Ready to Serve.
Sheriff Baffled in Searching for Unprejudiced.
Charged With Beheading Wife Will Plead Insanity.

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.
SANTA ANA, June 24.—Stefano Verisco, cobbler, involved in what the officers declare to be the strangest crime in the annals of the State, the actual beheading of his wife, faces the Superior Court here charged with murder.
Three venires of sixty men each have been exhausted in the effort to secure a jury and the case has been postponed to the next day. The sheriff, who is not prejudiced against the accused, Man after man called by the prosecutor to answer in court whether he has formed an opinion has replied he has not. It is an opinion that cannot be removed.
The prosecution has seen man after man of these big venires accused for cause, and those who have got as far as to be questioned by the attorneys for the defense have shown such pronounced feeling that they also have been discarded. Tonight the sheriff is securing the county for a new venire and his trip goes into the most remote places in the hope of finding some who have not been shocked at reading of the unusual nature of the slaying.
INSANITY PLEA.
The defense will be based upon the insanity plea. Verisco, who lived half a block from the police station, last winter walked into the jail asked to be locked up, saying that he was insane. As he had just completed taking his wife's head off, the superintendent had the stand and gave a shocking description of the offense. Later he said he was insane and gave an account of the wife had been beheaded by burglars while he was absent.
SEEMS ALBERT.
Through the long court sessions as the attorneys fought to secure jurors who have not heard of the slaying, the case has been a matter of public interest. The defense attorneys have been keenly alive to what is being said in the courtroom and jurors intently as the questions regarding the taleman's qualifications for the case are asked and answered.

WELL ON SIGNAL HILL ROARS IN.
New Oil District Seems to Have Been Proven.
Justice Cox Arrested Result of Getting Bebe's Goat.
Found Guilty on High Charges by "Inferior Court."

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.
LONG BEACH, June 24.—Apparently proving the territory conclusively, the well of the Shell Company of California, a branch of the Royal Dutch Shell Oil Company of London, came in on Signal Hill today with a roar and a splash. The terrific sea pressure in the well, recently completed at a depth of 1100 feet, forced a large volume of oil through forty tons of water contained in the casing to control the flow, shooting a stream of the black gold away above the crown blocks on the top of the derrick and spraying the surrounding territory for a distance of 300 feet. Four times the oil broke out and spouted, leaving the local field and scores of others are contemplated. The Shell well was cased in the direction of O. P. "Happy" Truitt, superintendent of operations. Late this afternoon the well banded up. The standard tools were lowered, however, and the bridge is expected to be bored away by tomorrow at the latest, at which time an effort will be made to get production test. Geologists and oil men of experience predict the well will not run oil under 1000 barrels a day. Drappings from the derrick, completely saturated with the spouting oil, are piled up in the center of the center of Hill street upon which borders the lease of the Long Beach Consolidated Petroleum Company. Officers of the latter company announced today that their lease directly across and within feet of the Shell lease will be improved with a derrick at once and that drilling would be under way within thirty days.
COX ARRESTED.
Charged with killing Bebe Daniels, the Justice Court of Santa Ana was arrested in a local cafe this afternoon on a warrant issued by Chief of Police Ben W. McClellan. The judge was attending a luncheon of the Progressive Business Men's Club when the arresting officers found him. Instead of being taken to jail Justice Cox was tried before the gathering of business men. He was found guilty and sentenced to serve six months in the new Long Beach City Jail. It is completed the building which will not be for at least a year. The jail sentence was later suspended.

No guesswork now—every Tillamook Cheese is branded!
For the past twenty-five years, cheese has been made at Tillamook. About twelve years ago, the most progressive dairymen in this little valley banded together to make cheese that has since become famous up and down the Pacific Coast.
For years, people have recognized the quality of Tillamook cheese, but found it difficult to make sure they were getting the genuine.
Now, there's no guesswork. Every pound of this finest cheese is branded. Every slice bears the name—Tillamook. Look for Tillamook on the rind if you want to buy the best cheese it is possible to produce.
Sold by the slice or in 4 and 10-pound tins.
—All Cheese Exchanges carried and opened in accordance with the Tillamook Cheese Brand.

TILLAMOOK CHEESE
Tillamook has not only made a famous cheese, but it has also developed the first successful method of branding each slice as you would brand your goods.

Pomona Business Man Nearly Dies as Shock Result.
EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.
POMONA, June 24.—M. R. Shouler, of the Miller Bottling Works, had a narrow escape from sudden death this morning, when he accidentally took hold of a bare electric light wire, the subsequent jolt throwing him heavily to the concrete floor of the bottling room. Shouler struck on a pipe as he fell and landed on his head. He had been on the bottle-erecting tank to adjust an electric droplight when he met with the accident. He was knocked unconscious, but will recover.
A. C. Abbott, president of the Pomona Branch of the Mountain Meadows Country Club, was elected president of the club at last night's meeting of the directors. The other officers elected are C. C. Warren, George Glendon, Fred B. Palmer of Walnut, secretary; C. W. Jordan, one of the organizers of the club, assistant secretary; Joseph H. Dehnol of Claremont, treasurer.
CARRIER PIGEON FAILS TO BRING ITS MESSAGE.
LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.
SANTA MONICA, June 24.—A pretty carrier pigeon flew into the yard of the St. Catherine Hospital annex in Santa Monica this morning. The bird was a white one and was quartered there, and they at once welcomed the bird as a possible messenger from Washington with news that the compensation of all the soldiers had been granted. The pigeon flew from the yard into the garage and from there quite willingly entered a cage. It was started with a message. It was on its way to the band around its left leg carried only a number, or rather two numbers, 11 and 12. If the bird is not claimed it will be kept as a pet and good luck mascot by the veterans.
SANTA ANA LICENSES.
EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.
SANTA ANA, June 24.—Marriage licenses were issued here today as follows: Rafael Aceves, 21, and Paulita Ballesteros, 21, Anaheim; Frank Mosler, 35, and Marguerite Dean, 19, Pasadena; Dario B. Zeren, 26, and Guadalupe Olivares, 19, Watts; James C. Craig, 21, Brea, and Lillian C. Lamer, 19, Anaheim; Leona A. Ward, 21, Indianapolis, and Pearl Helen Norman, 18, Long Beach.
CAT MANGLES SNAKE.
Mr. Clarence McMillan of Cardwell caught the other day a five-foot snake near his home. He took it with him to the house and placed it on the floor. The cat, which was a Siamese, appeared with its family and evidently fearing an attack by the snake, it proceeded to give the snake a warm time. The fight did not last long, and the snake was a thing of shreds. It was literally torn to pieces.
The snake was one of the black species. [Harradburg Democrat].
FITS THE DESCRIPTION.
While conceding that there is no absolute proof that Solomon once lived on a boat, the Western edition of the Caldwell Star, after an adventure in Bible reading, is convinced that he did, and offers the following verse from Ecclesiastes in proof: "The wind goeth toward the south; it bloweth about to the north; it whirleth about continually and the wind returneth again according to his circuit." [Wichita Beacon].

GHIRARDELLI'S Ground CHOCOLATE
Soy "Gear-and-elly"
D. GHIRARDELLI CO. San Francisco
Take 3 tablespoons Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate, 3 tablespoons sifted powdered sugar, 1 large egg, yolks and whites separately; add sugar to yolks, beat 10 minutes, add chocolate; mix thoroughly, add whites, beaten, and mix again. Bake in shallow square pan, lightly buttered, cut off edges, roll over folded napkin for jelly-roll. Best if kept puffy, sweetened to taste. When roll is cold, fill with cream. Put in Ghirardelli's chocolate squares may be added if desired.
What makes Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate work so "smoothly" in the oven? The same uni-form richness that makes it so "smooth" in the cup. It's this richness, this just-so richness, that makes Ghirardelli's the preferred chocolate for baking and dessert-making. You'll find Ghirardelli's is perfectly ground, ready to use as it comes from the can. You just "dig in"—no bother, no grating!
Ask your grocer for Ghirardelli's and write for our new book of recipes—it's free!

CHILDREN'S :: THEATER :: TO :: CLOSE :: SEASON.

Talented Cast Will Produce Playlet at Normal Hill Center.

Scene from "Snickety Nick," Fairy Play, to be Given Today.
Left to right, the performers are Elizabeth Gude, Mary Backus and Gladys Caswell, winter sprites. On the bench is Virginia Wright as the sleeping dwarf.

WITH the most elaborate program of the season, the Children's Theater in Normal Hill Center will close its first spring series of children's plays at 3 p.m. today. "Snickety Nick and the Giant," a heart-winning playlet, will be produced by juveniles from the Berkeley Hall school. City-wide invitation has been issued by the Community Service, Drama League and Playground Department, which are co-operating in this unique children's dramatic movement.

The Children's Theater was founded in February, with the purpose of training children with dramatic talent without cost, and to develop artistic and dramatic taste in the audiences of little folks.

Chiefly responsible for the development of this valuable civic enterprise are Miss Dora L. Kerwin, chairman of the children's committee of Community Service and the Drama League; Grove Brown and Miss Alice Alden. Other members of the committee include: Miss Hester Williams, Mrs. Isabel Grey, Mrs. J. B. Stearns, C. R. Hall, Miss Dorothy Shindler, Miss Miriam Niki and Miss Gertrude Washburn.

The Berkeley Hall children were trained in dramatic by Miss Constance Campbell and in dancing by May Field Betts.

The cast of "Snickety Nick" includes: Annie Louise Junquist, the dwarf; Jacqueline Betts, the little boy; June Shaw, spring; Mary Backus, winter; Jack Kirchner, rascally sailor; Virginia Drummond, and Josephine Alderman, children; Gladys Caswell and Elizabeth Gude, winter's attendants; Mariel Burgess, Virginia Pardon, Mary Louise Boos and Marjorie Betts, spring's attendants.

CHARGES STUBBS GOT MONEY BY FALSE ACT.

REALTY MAN WELL KNOWN IN CITIES OF LAW ACQUAINTED IN OPTION DEAL.

Ira M. Stubbs, local real estate dealer, who is well known in the courts of law, was a defendant yesterday in Justice Hinesha's court on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. It is charged that Mr. Stubbs represented to M. V. Clawson of 2116 Raymond avenue that Harry Blackburn of Calexico had sold his property in that city for $40,000, and was very anxious to purchase at Third and Emerald streets, this city. It is charged that Mr. Stubbs said he could get an option from a "Mr. Faulk" for $350 and that he promised to do so and to sell it to Mr. Blackburn at a profit. By these representations, it is charged, the complaining witness was induced to give $350 to apply on the option. He declares he lost the money.

The case was continued yesterday until Dep. Dist. Atty. Costello can make a search and learn how such a man as Harry Blackburn exists and, if so, whether he ever had any intention of buying the property. This case will come up again on June 28.

Found Soulmate, Man Tells Wife; She Gets Decree.

Married in Moscow, April 4, 1904, and deserted in Yokohama, Lidia Utkin learned through a letter her husband, John Utkin, wrote her that he had found his soulmate. As a result, Mrs. Utkin was granted a divorce by Judge Summerville yesterday. The letter was an exhibit in the case.

"What can I tell you this time?" he wrote. "It seems I explained it all to you one year and a half ago, when I fell in love with another woman and left you. You must forgive me. It is in my part to write you that way, but I have to be sincere, and once more I repeat to you, I still love the woman who, as you write, took me away from you. You must understand, Lidia, that I am boundless happy with her. I am very sorry for you, Lidia, but I can't stop loving Lidia. Good-bye, Lidia, and try to be happy. Forgive me and erase me out of your life as I erase you out of mine."

OAKLAND GIRL HURT.

Public Library Worker is Painfully Injured by Automobile.

Miss Ruth Cagle, 19 years of age, a member of the Public Library staff in Oakland, was painfully injured last yesterday afternoon at Sixth and Main streets when she was struck by an automobile driven by Jack M. Litch of 325 South Flower street. At the Receiving Hospital she was treated for a fractured right ankle and lacerations. She was then removed to the home of her father at 144 South Chester avenue, Pasadena.

Court Comments on Pleas of Women Who Are Earning More Than Husbands.

When it developed at the trial of the divorce suit of Franklin E. Kimball, a chemist, against Grace V. Kimball, in Judge Walton J. Wood's court yesterday, that she is making as much money as he is, the court said:

"Times have changed. Women who are earning more than their husbands come into court and expect the husbands to carry the burden of supporting the children. This man is making $15 a month and paying for his board. This woman is earning about $85 a month and has her own free home."

Mr. Kimball had a nervous breakdown and relinquished a chemist's position at a good salary. He is now doing other and inferior work and wanted to be relieved of paying the support of the children. He charges his wife with cruelty in obtaining legal aid and a complaint charging him with being insane. The case was dismissed by the court on the ground of insufficient evidence. Later he granted a motion to reopen the case and it was continued until next Tuesday for further evidence on the part of the plaintiff. The couple have two children. Mr. Kimball is represented by Attorney Rex Hardy.

VENICE UNDER FIRE.

Grand Jury Resumes Investigation of Beach City's Affairs.

Investigation of municipal affairs at Venice was resumed yesterday by the county grand jury, under the leadership of Dep. Dist. Atty. Costello. Among those called to testify, it is understood, were Arthur Howland of the County Engineers' office, formerly an assistant under City Engineer Walter Crawford of Venice, O. H. Harnett, present Mayor of the beach city; M. R. Crawford, James T. Peasgood, Jr., City Treasurer, and Trustees Coles and Holbrook, also appeared before the inquisitorial body. No formal action was taken. It was understood. The inquiry will be taken up again on Wednesday.

ALLOW NO FIREWORKS IN ANGELES RESERVE.

Forest Supervisor Allen wishes it clearly understood by the public that no firecrackers or fireworks of any kind will be allowed in the Angeles Forest. Any person who is found to be in violation of this rule will be fined $100 and his property will be destroyed. The warning is necessary every year because of the campers' still content to carry fireworks with them to their holiday camping parties. This year, arrests will be made in the event of any violations," said Mr. Allen.

ISLAND FILING.

This is another lively pitching game, which may be played with any small object at hand, such as pebbles, shells or small blocks of wood, if bean bags are not available. The players are evenly divided into two factions, north or south, or east and west. A small circle about a foot in diameter, called the island, is traced on the ground in front of each faction. The leader of each faction stands in the center of the island. Behind him in single file stand all the players of his side. If bean bags are used, the leader has six of these and at the starting signal, he throws them, one after the other, toward the circle or island. He scores one point for every bag landing within the circle. Any bag touching the outer line of the island does not count. While, say, the north captain is doing this, the south captain is also pitching bags toward his island.

Each player must go forward and collect his bean bags, then he runs back and hands them to the next player in line while he goes to the rear of the row and stands aside to act as score-keeper for his line. If there is no umpire for the game, it is necessary to keep careful score in island filing. The side gaining most points wins the game. No player is allowed to pitch until the signal is given. MAKES APPEAL FOR SUMMER CAMP FUND.

Mrs. William MacCormack, wife of Deag MacCormack of St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral, is heading a drive for clothing and furniture to be used in connection with the Neighborhood Settlement Summer Camp Fund, which provides seashore vacations for children, who otherwise would have to remain at home through the long summer months. Mrs. MacCormack requests that donations of clothing, shoes, hats and furniture be taken to 523 South Olive street or to notify her by telephone at 31778 and the articles will be called for.

Fashion's Forecast.

LADIES' AND MISSES' BLOUSE.

The small amount of material that this blouse, No. 1018, requires and the simplicity of the style will appeal to the woman who wishes a smart but inexpensive new overblouse.

The ladies' and misses' blouse No. 1018 is cut in sizes 28 to 42 inch bust measure. Size 36 requires 1 1/2 yards 24-inch material.
